On December 15, 1995, the Commission issued a declaratory ruling concluding that foreign ownership of Sprint up to 28% is not inconsistent with Section 310 of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended (the “Act”).³ Further, on September 18, 1996,

¹ The exact percentage of FT’s voting interest is subject to potential fluctuations within a very narrow range.

² The exact percentage of DT’s voting interest is subject to potential fluctuations within a very narrow range.

the Commission ruled that an increase of foreign ownership in Sprint of up to 35% is consistent with the public interest under Section 310(b)(4) of the Act because additional foreign equity contributions will enhance Sprint's ability to expand and improve its network services and products to the benefit of U.S. consumers.⁴ Current indirect foreign ownership interests in Sprint are consistent with those decisions, and are therefore in compliance with Section 310(b)(4).
